of the students were away however, on their holiday vacation. The utmost confusion prevalled at the scene of the fire. Nuns and pupils rushed from the place. All the young women, so far as can be learned, eucaped. Today they are quartered comfortably, and so far none are reported miss-ing. With the nuns, however, the case was different. Theirs was the especial care of looking after the young girls, and when the roll was called, seven of the older women did not respond. They were overtaken by flames and smoke and perished. The loss estimated at $75,000, with only about and tomorrow night.

Chances Are Those on Board Escaped in the Boats. NORTHWALK, Cons., Jan. 6.—The three-nasted schooner, L. M. Bonnel, was lost by fire. . Its owners are unknown. It was burned to the water's edge in Long Island sound last night. The steamers Medes and J. Howard Lowndes put out to the burning wreck, but the versel had been abandoned and there is not a trace of the captain or crew. Captain Lowndes succeeded in geting a line to the burning vessel and towed t to the bar on the Cockence islands, where it is still burning. It is impossible to board the vessel, as the fire is burning fiercely in the hold. It is possible that a portion or all of the crew have lost their lives, but it is believed they abandoned the ship at some point on Long Island.

eital of War Experiences.
The military order of the Loyal Legion neld its monthly meeting and banquet at the Millard hotel last night, there being about thirty members present, largely from the city. The feature of the evening was a recital of experiences in the Mexican and civil wars, and in the troubles with the Mormons and Indians, by Sergeant Michael Cody of this city, who was for forty-six years a member of the regular army, and has for ten years een on the retired list. Cody was offered the position of major by President Lincoln, out declined it with the statement that to be orderly sergeant was all the honor he deired from his service.

J. S. France, forme formerly of this city, but ow living in California, was present at the meeting, and they say it was largely through his efforts that Mr. Cody was brought out last night, for he steadfastly refuses to go anywhere where he is apt to be called upon C. M. Rigg of Beatrice, and C. W. Prince and J. H. McClay of Lincoln were also pres-

Pretty Ethel Irving, who has been playing Carey Presson in "Alabama" for three years, was born in London, England, Although quite young, she has had considerable experience. She was at the Lyric theater, London, for neveral years when that theater was under the management of Henry J Leslic. She appeared in all the operas produced by Mr. Leslie, and made a marked hit in "Dorothy:" Later Miss Irving repeated th success in New York, under the manage-ment of James C. Duff. Miss Irving was also for several seasons at George Edwards' Variety theater, London, where she danced hervelf into favor. Although feminine to a degree, Miss Irving is somewhat of an athlete. She holds prizes for swimming mile-and-a-half races. She is a crack lawn tennis player, and an excellent horsewoman, and is never happier than when mounted on a high-mettled thoroughbred.
